Greenock back in the news. Carter Conlon is going back., on: 2009/4/27 9:26

Carter Conlon is having a major outreach to the Greenock area this coming November. The dates are booked. Here is a portion of an e-mail from a dear brother in Scotland who helped set up the SI conference in Greenock last year.....

Thanks for your email. Trust you are well. Yes we've recently confirmed that Pastor Carter Conlan is returning to Inverclyde for a week of meetings in November and will bring with him a team of up to 50 people who will get involved alongside us (The Inverclyde Christian Initiative, Teen Challenge and the Haven etc) in a whole range of activities from streetwork, presentations to schools, perhaps a youth night, a Christian music occasion for the west end types who think they are okay and won't come out to an evangelistic evening outreach, seminars on worship, a dinner for businessmen etc etc. The dates are set ... Carter will be preaching in the Greenock Town Hall and Port Glasgow Town Hall Tuesday 10th November to Friday 13th while the team could be here for a fortnight around these dates. He really has a heart for here and for Scotland as a whole.

We very recently had a lovely couple from Times Square Church with us for a few days looking at all the possibilities for activities and over the next month we shall firm up all the details. The evening meetings with Carter are likely to be advertised across the UK and Europe in a number of ways."

My heart rejoices for this area. Many on SI who attended last years conference had a great heart for this area and will rejoice to hear this. In many ways I believe that the prayer warriors who arrived there from all points of the globe, broke down the walls of opposition in the heavenlies and have made a way for this to happen. I fully expect to see a great harvest. Praise the Lord and the name of Jesus, He will be magnified in one of the toughest areas in Scotland. Is there anything too difficult for our God?.....Frank

Hi brother Frank,

This is great news. Thank you so much for keeping us informed.

:D

Praise God. I look forward to hearing more of this and trying to spread the word through sermonindex. May God work in revival power in greenock. That God that He is a prayer answering God!

Wow, praise God!

Hi guys,

It is hard for me to express how excited I am about this. Not about the fact that a man is coming(although he is a good man as I believe) but about the fact that as an army of prayer warriors we went there and softened up the opposition. In our prayer sessions we knew that we were assaulting the walls, getting the breach and then moving in to "take the city." This is God's perfect timing and there will be a harvest, of this I have no doubt. A fire has to start somewhere, and there is no doubt that Scotland and beyond needs the flames of revival to consume them at least one more time before the Lord returns.....Frank

Thank you for posting this Frank.
Our prayers stay there. LORD GOD Bless them all there, Amen.

I will be in prayer about this. I would love to return to the UK and Greenock. If the Lord should will it, He will make a way. Perhaps we could join in prayer for the event and see what God will do!

Re: , on: 2009/4/27 13:33

Hi Robert,

I am considering going home myself if the Lord opens up the way for me. As for the prayer, we shall be praying for Greenock on Tuesday nights and also on our new International prayer call meetings on Saturdays. Many of the people on both of these calls were there or were involved deeply in praying for revival in Greenock and I know that they will be excited to see what the Lord will do in Greenock and in the surrounding area and beyond even that.....Frank

Re: , on: 2009/4/27 13:35

Thank you Jesus-is God. The prayers of the saints is what changes the world. Nothing can happen outside of prayer. We are a potent force when we march on our knees.....Frank Great news!

I'm really excited about what God is going to do!

The groundwork has been prepared~ with the meeting of those who have a vision and a heart for revival, soaking the land in prayer.

Now this:~ an army of committed men and women to reach the hungry souls with the gospel and to be an extension of the love of Christ in Greenock: a place of much need. Praise God!

Oh yes, let's be in prayer for this!

Hi Jesus-is God,

I listened to the sermon and was greatly blessed. I get his newsletter every month and it always speaks to me.....Frank

Re: , on: 2009/4/27 23:43

Praise GOD Brother Frank. How we've prayed over Scotland and now we'll pray all the more "in the Spirit" for this year = Thank You Jesus, Amen!

Re: , on: 2009/4/28 7:20

Hi Jesus-is-GOD,

I thought I would listen to the first 10 minutes or so of David Wilkerson's sermon last night (a little foretaste) and finish listening to the rest of it today... But I ended up listening to all of it (and had a bit of a late night!) :)

It was so encouraging~ I have sent the link on to a few others who I know will find it a blessing also.

Thanks!

Joy

Bless GOD for David's life and testimony of Faithfulness. He seldom preaches anymore but we have his Blog Thank GOD, but I'm always encouraged when I can still hear his voice.

GOD Bless you Joy ... you are an encouragement to me as well. Thank you!

LORD Bless Brother Conlon & Greenock.

There was a real breakthrough the night that brother Carter preached. It was a combination of prayer, worship and the message which was basically that God would not come down and glorify men's ministries, but that He would come down and glorify Himself. He certainly did that night.....Frank Brother, thank you for sharing this. I hadn't heard what he preached while there.

If anyone can do it - he can - after what I heard last night. He knows that GOD SO LOVES THE WORLD <http://media.tscnyc.org/mp3/20090329S1.mp3>

I listened to this one 4 times last night. It was perfect. I know some backslidden folks that would be loved back to GOD by this one as well.

What 'pleading' for souls.

He described "outer darkness" exactly as it is too - but it was the LOVE OF GOD that came through him the most. Amazing Grace!

Bless you Brother for your burden for your homeland. I pray they and Many of us get to go in Nov and that we'll be interceding greatly for all genuine outreaches / missionaries / evangelists / anyone who witnesses to the not-saved while we still can - Amen, and Amen!

We sometimes don't realize how GOD will move through our prayers. The 'hyper-faith' invasion from the enemy may have polluted "faith in prayer" for that very reason --- but we read the book of Acts and so many Missionary stories and they themselves say that it was others praying that they 'felt' & got them through so very much. Amen!!!

Thank you Brother.

Your Sis.

Our fervent prayer before and during the Greenock conference was that we would speak with an Acts 2:37 power, Katanusso power, Katanusso being the Greek word for "stabbed in the heart." I wrote a small piece about this power, the power to penetrate hard hearts, the power to pierce.....Frank

Amen Frank, what you wrote and something that some of us talked about earlier this year about Elijah on a thread about whether there are prophets or not - I just found Carter Conlon's

(http://www.tscnyc.org/sermons/1386\_0905\_carter\_conlon\_the\_coming\_of\_the\_elijah\_ministry.pdf) Sermon Newsletter for May. It just seemed to tie in with all the talks about having a burden for souls - pointing people back to GOD - that "the power" was for Witnessing / saving souls and not for 'shows', as some have abused "Elijah's" name with.

To have a burden for the lost NOW is the greatest gift of all. GOD Bless you and all that feel this burden - in our own towns or cities first and out from there. :-D
