I have a friend with young children who is divorced due to abuse. She is a Christian, but he is not, and she will not have him back until the Lord gets a hold on him. In the last two years I have watched the Lord heal her of her bitterness and recently the Lord has been showing her that they are still connected (if he can't sleep, she can't sleep until she prays for him :-)).

Bill is shrouded in MUCH darkness. Please pray for his salvation. The stage is set for a beautiful godly family - they just need Bill to become complete.

I will be praying for Bill to see his great need for Jesus and for this family.

God Bless
