They persecute him whom thou hast smitten.

It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! - Him, being delivered by the de terminate counsel and fore-knowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. - They did spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, saying, Prophesy unto us, thou C hrist, Who is he that smote thee? - Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, He sav ed others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross. - Of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israe l, were gathered together, to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

Surely he hath borne our grief, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.
