Out of duty or love - posted by vls (), on: 2004/9/2 17:18

I have just read some of the posts and the one about being a slave to righteousness touched me. I have been so hungry for a closer walk with Jesus that He has shown me that what I had been doing was all out of duty and not out of love for Him. We are commanded to love him with all our heart, mind, soul and strength so when we do we will do his will - which is to preach the Gospel with our mouths and our walk. Praise God that he is calling us to a closer walk with him so we will be able to stand strong for him because we truly love Him with our whole being. :-P :-P

--There is a story of a man who, in search of God, came to study at the feet of an old teacher. The sage brought this young man to a lake and led him out into the shoulder-deep water. Putting his hands upon his pupil's head, he promptly pushed him under the water and continued to hold him there until the disciple, feeling he would surely drown, frantically repelled the old man's resistance. In shock and confusion the young man resurfaced. "What is the meaning of this?" he demanded. His teacher looked him in the eyes and said, "When you desire God as you desired air, you shall find Him." ---

Hello vls

Thank for that point. That's exactly right. I guess along the same lines of that is that its is more important to give God a piece of your heart than a piece of your heart. Thanks again for that point.
