I hope many can hear brother Zac. Someone please do greet him for me in the Lord!

I am going but I checked the alcf website and didn't see any announcements of his visit. I sure hope it wasn't cancelled!

Wow, he was just three miles from my house and we missed him again.

oh no! Well apparently he visits that church often so I'm sure you'll get a chance again. During service one of the pastor s said that whenever brother Poonen visits America they see if it's possible for him to speak at the church (alcf).

Hi bobmcd510,

Yeah, this is the second time we missed him. My wife and I have visited that congregation several times. In fact, my sis ter-in-law is a college student at Stanford, and she attends that church (with quite a few other Stanford students) during semesters. One day, she called us to tell us all about this great preacher that she knew that we would like, but she coul dn't remember his name. Lo and behold -- it was Brother Zac Poonen!

The church is less than three miles from our house, so we hope to visit the next time our brother Zac is in town.
