I wanted to post this book recommendation in light of the new thread that Chanin started on Biblical Parenting.

The book is Called "The Christian Family" and was written by Larry Christenson.

This is a very good book and I strongly recommend it. David Wilkerson said something like "every Christian parent should read this book and that it was the best he has read on the subject."

My wife and I have both read it and will most likely read some if not all of it again.

The web link below is one place you can purchase the book but I'm sure there are others.

God bless,

Mike

Mike,

thank you for this. I will definitely look into this one! :-)
