Pray before you read it, it makes your blood boil.

Ray Comfort, no shame to be an idiot in Richard Dawkins bat-blind eyes.

Well, with that resounding advice, I think I'll pass reading it for now.

Excellent! Thanks for posting this.

In Addition the movie, "Expelled; No Intelligence Allowed" with Ben Stien is a must watch for all concerned christians. I have watched it three times over the past two years. I learn another angle of the greater struggle each time I have watched it.

God bless

It always surprises me how man can use the wisdom GOD gave him to try to reason away the very purpose and reason for his being!!

No reason to have one's body fluids in entropy just because one blind man calls one who sees an 'idiot'.

If you understand the spiritual forces at work in this debate, you'll be prepared for any and everything.

Ray Comfort is boldly declaring that there is a God, the very thing evolution has been persuading men against.

'Tis not angst that is called for now but for us to be as the sons of Issachar who had an understanding of the times and knew what Israel ought to do.

Richard Dawkins is a man of staggering intellect. Unless the Lord sovereignly intercepts him, like he did with Paul or raises up a man or woman of sanctified humongous intellect, we can only pray.

A man with faith in the Living God is never at the mercy of an intelligent man studying dry bones. It takes more "faith" to believe Darwin.

Re: , on: 2009/11/25 12:28

"staggering intellect"? When I watched Dawkins on "Expelled, No Intelligence Allowed" I was surprised at how unintelligent he seemed. He also seemed to be having a nervous condition. Then He even went on to theorise that the earth was intelligently started by Aliens. But he still wasn't for sure of even that.

Anywhoo.....

I know I'm going to be flamed for this....but there's a reason the Lord chose a lawyer to write almost 2/3 of the new testament.

Re: , on: 2009/11/25 17:46

Dawkins twice condemns hunches as not interesting and unscientific. Then he switches and say Darwin had a good "hunch" about the future success of his book.

Also truly amazing to see the manifestation of seathing anger and disgust when Ray Comfort is brought up. Dawkins then tries to act like he doesn't even know who he is. However Dawkins knows who Ray Comfort is.

"And the beat goes on.....
