Saints,

Redpath preaching to students at Prairie Bible Institute and looks at the 6th chapter of Mark's gospel, specifically at the miracle of the feeding of the 5000. He shows how we try to do so much in our own strength, rather than being totally dependent on God. Have we given all to Jesus?

Good listen. I love Redpath's distinct voice, especially when he gets a rhythm going in his preaching.

I really enjoyed this message. I don't think I've ever listened to him before. Does anybody know anything about him?

I have listened to maybe 10 of his messages. He has a passion for holiness, prayer, and the power of God to genuinely be manifested in the lives and ministries of believers. He does adhere to the doctrine of the 'carnal Christian.' He seems to believe so based upon his experience. He determines he was saved at one point and then continued on miserably in the world for 10 years before finally submitting to God.

So I don't agree with all of his theology but he preaches with passion and his application is usually very practical and inspiring.

A few notable sermons I've listened too:
