My mom too had a hard night last night, i have all these problems of mine own but someone needs to pray for them, my mom has felt alone for a long time, she is an alcoholic most nights, her husband my dad vern does not treat her that good anymore and doesn't seem to care about her anymore. Pray for him too, but she works so hard at work and at home, she moved away from her family in Georgia and she has no friends up here, please so many people i know need prayer, but my mom needs a savior to rescue her, please keep my mom Pat Beechy in prayer.
