The Aftermath of An Encounter
30 October 2004

I'm still staggering from the residue of the presence of the Holy Spirit which we basked in during the conference last week with Arthur Katz. Sitting under his ministry and interacting with him on a personal basis, I could not but feel that I was speaking to someone who walks in a degree of similarity to the saints in the early Church. I have never met an OT prophet before, but I think that Art sure comes close!

A lot of people I spoke to have been deeply impacted by Art's ministry (including my wife and I), though several in the church have expressed that they could not fully understand the messages. I think they got lost in his vocabulary. But here is a classic excerpt of an email from a member of the church who was deeply impacted by Art's ministry. I have edited his email because of length and I am reproducing it for you because I think it pretty much sums up the feelings of many in Cornerstone. Here goes:—

"I am overwhelmed by the message. I am in a state of euphoria. It has transformed me from abject misery to a state of bliss. I wouldn't know yet for sure the source of this joy though. But the fact that it has lasted these few days and has not run out of steam is in itself a proof that it springs from some source that is not superficial. It seemed to have served as the panacea for all discords that I have been struggling with within me..."

"I always read this message in the Christ of the New Testament. The Christ of courage, the Christ who questioned the established religious order, not the Christ who encourages us to live within the confines of the secular comfort and to call on His name to further our worldly ends. Alas the charismatic Christian order wouldn't let me subscribe to this notion of God, and to his grandiose for redemption for humanity. Fear and insecurity, reward and punishment were the focus of popularized Christianity. I have sworn I shall not belittle my Lord's sacrifice with my cheap expectations and worldly petitions in future!

"I have never answered an altar call in all my church going 'Christian' life. Yesterday was the only day I found myself moving towards the altar in spite of me. I had desperately wanted to be anointed with oil by this man but the whole group of people standing at the back were left out including me. Ironically the only time I wanted to be prayed for (to me this was a moment of eternal significance) I was missed out. Never mind though. Pastor, the whole thing has been shaken in to perspective!! I'm not willing to let go of this clarity, this enlightenment! Not even if the devil should offer me the caretaking of all his kingdom and its riches! Thanks so much for bringing this man."

I encourage you to listen to Art's messages which are available on CD format and on our website. And you need to listen to them over and over again to let the Word sink in.
Have a nice weekend!

A most sincere and warm welcome to you Cornerstone!

Thank you for sharing these resources and I do hope you may be blessed likewise by all that is available here.

It seems Art always leaves something in his wake, no matter where he goes. Can still recall the warmth of the man even in and through the seriousness of the message he brought our way last year. "Precious saint(s)" indeed.

Excellent!

A kind of informal introduction to our webmaster, 'leader' and all around good guy, Greg Gordon who should be coming along shortly. Got a hunch he might take a liking to all this.

Purusing your site and may I say, outstanding!
Incredible job you are doing there brother.

And for Brother Art, his sermons always cut to the heart. Thanks for sharing with us and your website is great as well by the way.

They are, currently we process of transcribing them. We make those available.

As Art Katz, wants us to listen to them again and again.

We have wonderful sound system, therefore we able record his sermons very clear (without the hissing sound).

If you have time to listen Pastor Yang message on (<http://www.csc.org.sg/cornerstone/spiritualfood/spiritualfood2.htm>)
The Gospel of the Easy Way (scroll down 17 October). As many charismatic churches are teaching the wrong message of grace (Balaam teachings) and prosperity.

I just thankful, Our church is called to be broken and transform.

Re: - posted by lwpray (), on: 2004/10/31 6:33

Would it be possible to make those transcriptions available to me/us.
I am translating some of Brother Katz's material into Swedish.
As I wrote, these messages are a valid and compact introduction to Katz's whole message.

Yes, I listened to this yesterday and it's a wonderful message. Pastor Yang preaches a powerful message. I thought it was my pastor. Great message and a very cutting one. Thank God for the power of His word.

Let me know the status of this I would love to get the transcripts on SermonIndex.net also.

Re: - posted by cornerstone (), on: 2004/10/31 11:01

It should not be a problem. What I can promise is Sunday service messages. We are transcribing:
The Agony and the Ecstasy of Paul in Romans 9-11.
A Call to Apostolicity,

As Art keeps repeating, that we need to save it in library, as we grow more mature in Christ we would understand it. Thus is speaking to our young people. As we have many youths attending our church.

The other messages: I'm not quite sure who would be writing it.

You, dear friend, and friends, are already a great blessing to us.

Thank you for making these precious items available!

Katz's words and language and challenges are a terror to some, but to some of us it is gold and diamonds.

Greetings to the Church in Singapore.

Thanks Lars

Our pleasure. I just want to thank Art Katz coming to this part of the world. He really has made an impact to most of us who are serious with God. Though we were not charismatic church, but we felt have go deeper things. I really believe God sent him to stir our spirit, and to guide us. Many visitors (from other churches) who came to his meeting were offended, but I (and leadership of the church) see convictions as a guiding point to 'life', and change even more.

God Bless

Lawton

Great job. Wow, that must have been a lot of work.

My wife and brother-in-law both asked if your Senior Pastor is Korean or not (they're both Korean). Not that it matters but I copied one sermon for my brother-in-law and he was asking about it.
