

Devotional Thoughts :: This is my own confession

This is my own confession , on: 2010/12/17 11:24

Hi saints,

This is a recording of last Tuesday nights prayer conference call. I led out and used the opportunity to make confession before my brothers and sisters. The previous two weeks brother Leroy had shared on humility and how God resists the proud and last week brother Edger Reich spoke on sin. And so, humbling myself I confessed my own sin. And so, the title of last weeks prayer call is "What is justice? What is the heart of God." May it minister to you.....brother Frank

This is one of the most profound confessions I have ever listened to.

Only by the mercy and love of God does He hold me together. Outside of Him I would be lost in the deepest darkness....
