Dear Fellow Christian,

Two more Gospel for Asia-supported pastors are in jail this week. Their crime? Conducting a home prayer meeting. See how you can pray for them.

Please continue to fervently lift these servants before the Lord. They desperately need us to stand with them.

Yours for the unreached,

Missionaries Arrested After House Prayer Meeting

March 21, 2011

Daya and Garima were conducting a home prayer meeting like this one when anti-Christian extremists beat them up and the police arrested the missionaries.

Two Gospel for Asia-supported missionaries were arrested after they conducted a house prayer meeting.

Daya Dass and Garima Rongpi have been serving in a South Asian village for three years. They have one small congregation there, and they spend time in the surrounding villages sharing the love of Jesus. They frequently conduct prayer meetings in villagers' homes.

On March 17, they were having one of these home meetings and had just started to pray when a group of anti-Christian extremists broke in and attacked Daya and Garima. The fanatics accused them of forcing people to convert to Christianity, and the police arrested them.

The state where these missionaries serve has a "freedom of religion" law, which was enacted to protect people from being forced to convert to Christianity by fraud, allurements or coercion. The law allows people to convert to Christianity if they seek permission from the government first.

Daya and Garima are still in jail and asking for your prayers.

Pray specifically that their charges would be dropped and they would be released soon. They also asked for prayer that Christians in the area would not become fearful but would remain strong in Jesus, and that the fanatical groups would truly understand the love of Jesus.

Arrived in my email. Please continue to pray for all who are being persecuted and the persecutors. Amen and Amen!

Sometimes I think it helps to just close one's eyes for a moment and picture these type things happening to ourselves.

the love of Jesus."

Praying for their enemies as well. This stuff is real.
It's really happening to those that we'll spend eternity with.
We can't even begin to imagine these things happening to ourselves - yet.
Leaves one speechless. Literally.

thank you Sis.
