SI Moderator Attending The Gospel Coalition Conference (Apr 12-14) - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2011/4/12 1:08

Saints,

Grateful to God for the opportunity to attend the Gospel Coalition Conference over the next 3 days: April 12-14th in Chicago, USA: <http://thegospelcoalition.org/conferences/2011/>

Thanks to Nigel B. for the push to go. He is the founder of www.movein.to

You can watch it live here via DG: <http://www.desiringgod.org/live>

If you are at the event do look for one of the more taller individuals.

Wow ..A very interesting topic for sure .."Jesus and the gospel from the Old Testament."

And so many speakers!...I think I may have to tune into this one as well.

Thanks for letting us know. :)

I encourage many on SI to watch these sessions. This last session by Al Mohler was a very rich sermon with much to ponder on the Christ centered view of Scriptures Old and New.

the live stream of all main sessions: <http://www.desiringgod.org/live>

Tim Keller will be live in 30 minutes.

Just for the record, as this conference proceeds, session 6 is in progress. In this conference, there is much on the OT, preaching on the OT, the righteous branch, Isaiah, Jeremiah, etc.

All over the world, since September 2011, over 1000 classes (250 to 500 each) have been studying Isaiah. This week all class members have been swimming and soaking in Isa. 58 and 59. There was no other way - there was not even an intercessor (Isa. 59: 15-16)

This conference is very rich. These true things are on the heart of God.
