

General Topics :: What if Job, Never Persevered ?

What if Job, Never Persevered ?, on: 2011/5/7 18:43

What if Job, Never persevered ?

Would his life have been blessed twice as much in the latter, then in the beginning. Would he receive double of what he had before.

James 5:11

As you know, we consider blessed those who have persevered.

You have heard of Job's perseverance and have seen what the Lord FINALLY brought about.

So many have missed out on God's blessing not willing to persevere

And see what the Lord would have FINALLY brought about.

Relying on the arms of the flesh, The "I can do man".

Creating their very own Ishmael. Instead of waiting, trusting and believing God, for the promise Isaac.

For Nothing is impossible with God Luke 1:37 Do we believe this?

Waiting for the fulfillment of God.

Where, are all the faith standing believers, willing to stand still in faith believing, trusting God, to bring their miracle before their eyes.

Is not our God able.?

Who created the heavens and the earth and all that is in it.

Willing to go through the fire of trials resulting, in praise, glory and honor to Our Lord and Savior, Our Triumph Christ.

Genesis 18:14 Is anything too hard for the Lord ?

I grew up in a Christian home, rebelled in my teens, pregnant, feeling obligated to marry the unbelieving Father of my child.

I did not even like this man, "I hated him". I felt so trapped.

We got married, I felt like I was going to my funeral. I cried.

It was the worst day of my life, marry the man I not only hated, but didn't love.

Three years into our marriage I even tried to bring another lady my husband's way so in God's eyes I would be set free.

Thank you Lord, that never worked.

I gave my heart back to my Lord and Savior 3 years into our marriage.

The church was praying for our marriage. O please don't, I want it to end.

At 10 years into our marriage I knew I had desires for my child's teacher.

Nothing ever happened, I don't even know if he knew I had desires for him.

But I knew God was saying. Do you want my purpose, my plan, for your life or do you want yours. We sold the house and changed schools.

God I want your purpose and plan for my life.

In around this time my husband gave his heart to the Lord.

Believe it or not I wasn't happy, knowing that we would have to work this out.

My one child was begging me to leave her father.

I remember getting on my knees crying out to God,
Quoting the verse Mark 9:23
Everything is possible for him who believes.

God, this is an impossible situation. Can you do it ?
you know the feeling I have for my husband
God can you really do the impossible?

I decided to go full force for God, reading the word, praying.
In fact I got so hungry for God, that nothing mattered. He was my life, my joy, my comfort. My all in all. He would feel me up with his joy.
O God, is so good.

At our 25th anniversary the one who wanted me to leave her dad stood up in pride knowing only God could have kept us together this long.
Giving all the glory and Praise to God, who is able.

We've been married now 28 years almost 29
And I am loving my husband more and more each day
Believing God, for complete healing and restoration, because, my God is able to do far more than we ask and think.

All the praise and glory and honor to God!!!!

Luke 18:27
What is impossible with men is possible with God.

Phil 4:13
I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

Hang in there, Persevere, God is able to open your red sea and get you to the other side. Only believe.

Re: What if Job, Never Persevered ? - posted by itg3712 (), on: 2011/5/8 8:20

Thank you for this testimony and exhortation.

Re: What if Job, Never Persevered ? - posted by itg3712 (), on: 2011/5/8 8:20

Thank you for this testimony and exhortation.