All flags in New York City ought to be at half mast on this day. Television and radio stations ought to observe a moment of silence, like they did when John Lennon was shot to death.

Brother Dave, you ran it well.

That deserves repeating.

Amen to that!

I thought the same thing. So true and Amen.

Oh my! What happened? When did he die? This is the first and only place I have heard that Wilkerson passed away! How and when did he die? How old was he? Who will take his place?
