

Welcome & Intro :: Defending the fatherless children*Defending the fatherless children - posted by Royalty, on: 2011/7/30 17:32

Can you remember at any time you where able to experience a stranger walking in a church and saying, " I am in need o f some food for my children and myself are hungry, and get imediate response?" What has happened to the church in th e last days is that we have allowed the system to dictate to us on when to give, how to give and how much. We as a peo ple of The Most High God have to be careful not to become so complaisent with making decisions that effect the lives of poor people who are not in position to fully take care of themselves.The Lord is going to hold all of us responsible if we f ail to meet the demands of his will, and for what he has ordered for his people to obey and abide by. Even until the very moment and second of Jesus Christ our Lord coming through the clouds we had better be found doing his will, There will be no excuses.Deuteronomy 24:19,20,21; Jeremiah 7:6 {Sister Royal} swwc51@yahoo.com
