A group of anti-Christians brutally attacked a missionary supported by Gospel for Asia Friday night with swords and other weapons.

When Pastor Bashuda received a call from one of the believers in his church asking for prayer Friday evening, he got on his bicycle and headed for the house. As Bashuda rode his bicycle, a car pulled up beside him. Five men jumped out and went after the pastor. He tried to run, but the men caught him and began beating him with swords. After Bashuda stopped moving, the men drove off, leaving him for dead on the side of the road. Bashuda was alive, but unconscious.

Half an hour later, a man riding his bicycle saw Bashuda and checked to see if he was okay. He found out what village the pastor was from and went to find help. The passerby was able to find villagers who knew Bashuda and immediately recognized him as their pastor. ...
