Dear Brothers and Sisters,

After much prayer I am going to be standing down from SI. the Lord is taking me to more prayer.

I pray we all will know the depth of His unconditional love as we seek His Face and share that love with others. That we will be Christians that draw souls to Him and not turn them away.

God continue to be lifted up around the world as He is drawing men unto Himself.

Today marks my two year anniversary of being here! Just realized that.

His love, grace & peace to all.

1 Cor. 13

Gal. 5

Dear Sheri

I wanted to tell you I am sorry to hear that you have decided to leave SI but I do understand your decision. I have always been very appreciative of your thoughtful and encouraging posts here on the forum. Thank you for taking the time to share what the LORD has given you over the last two years.

I will keep you in my prayers

God Bless you

Sister, your contributions here have been a huge blessing to the body of Christ and those that have read your posts from all across the world. It has not been in vain in anyway. We pray you will be back soon as the Lord leads. Thank you for your targeted specific praying for this ministry in many ways.

Well, I do understand your decision.

We all need to break away from the rat race and get alone with God.

But I wouldn't say goodbye forever, rather, by for now.

Besides, who will be around to remind us of the Times Square church services on Sunday?

You've always been a cheerful face here on SI, now it will be one less.

Thanks for being a blessing.

Praying for you, sister Sheri.

Sometimes, a sabbatical away from things for a time or prayer or fasting can serve to strengthen our faith.
