The eternal love of God is without limit. Oh the beauty of such a love for such a one as me brother Frank

Eternal Love

Oh love without ending
As vast as the sea
Oh mercy divine
Forever it will be

Oh infinite grace
It has no end
Eternal redemption
The heavens you'll rend

And all these flow down
From a mountain so high
That it reaches the heavens
And bursts through the sky

When I survey
The heavens above
I'm awed by the vastness
I'm awed by your love

One day I'll stand
On eternities shore
How vast is your love?
I'll guess no more

Only then I'll know
How vast is the sea
Only then I'll know
Love eternally
