This book was written by Artuhr Pink. I'm not really sure of his doctrinal persuasion, but this book--actually two statements---have changed the way I pray.

1) If the Glory of God is not your foremost concern in prayer, then you are praying amiss.

2) Praying is preaching to yourself in the presence of God. It is for your edification not His information.

I actually happened across this book while searching for some commentary on the Lord's Prayer (which is the MOST powerful prayer in all the Word!). It was a blessing.
