

Revivals And Church History :: [revival] The 100-YEAR-OLD PROPHECY - Andrew Strom

[revival] The 100-YEAR-OLD PROPHECY - Andrew Strom - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2012/3/15 12:51

ANDREW's NOTE: There are 2 things that people won't like about the prophecy below. For one thing, it is declaring that there is genuine hope for a real Revival in this generation. I hear from Christians in our circles all the time that there is no such hope. Many have completely given way to Cynicism. But they call their cynicism by another name. They call it "discernment". They long ago stopped hoping or believing that God might really move. They say it is only the "false prophets" that give encouraging words about "Revival coming". And so this must be a 'false' word too, they say. But cynicism and unbelief are not "discernment". They are simply cynicism and unbelief. We need to repent.

The second reason that people will not like this prophecy is that it mentions the "latter rain". This is not the same as the "Latter rain" heresy. All the old pentecostals that I have read about used the term "latter rain" all the time - to talk about a real Last-Days outpouring of the Holy Spirit. It was only much later that the term got associated with the "Latter Rain" heresy out of Canada.

But I find lately that the Cynicism is so great, the Unbelief so strong, the so-called "Discernment" is so nit-picking (and by the way, "Google-searching" is not 'Discernment' either) - that everyone nit-picks every "positive" word to death. Just like the Pharisees.

You simply are not allowed to be "hopeful" any more.

Could the below prophecy be true? I surely hope so. I have to believe that God has not given up yet. And neither has this generation seen a truly holy and radiant "Bride" clothed in the glory of Christ. I am not one who is wanting to "whimper" my way into eternity without at least seeing that. - Nit-picking, anyone? - Andrew Strom.

The 100-YEAR-OLD PROPHECY
-Michael Edds.

The great Azusa Street Awakening, which over the years resulted in 600 million being swept into the Kingdom of God and gave birth to the Pentecostal Movement, began in 1906. It was one of the greatest outpourings of the Spirit of God since Pentecost. Multitudes were saved, healed, and filled with the Holy Spirit. Incredible miracles occurred.

This great revival moved from Los Angeles to its new focal point of Chicago, Illinois. The two great centers of revival in Chicago were the North Avenue Mission and the Stone Church. Pentecost swept from Chicago to Canada, Europe, South America and Africa. One of the greatest outpourings occurred at Stone Church in 1913. The renown evangelist Maria Woodworth Etter began a revival on July 2, 1913 at Stone Church.

The services were to last until the end of July but continued for six months. This was a time of divine appointment for the city of Chicago; God rent the heavens and came down!! Scenes from the days of the Early Church began to occur at Stone Church. Word began to spread throughout Chicago of miraculous healings, deliverance from demonic possession, conversions, and of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit happening in these meetings. Advertisement was no longer necessary! The city was incredibly shaken. Word spread of the miraculous intervention of God. Thousands came on trolleys, buggies, and trains, while many walked. Some came from distances of 1,600 miles away. 1200 to 1500 packed into Stone Church each night. The basement was filled and many stood out on the street. Street meetings were held to accommodate them. Three services were held on Sundays!

As Christians prayed around the altar one evening, Sister Woodworth-Etter and others gave the following powerful prophecy and divine promise, which they prophesied would occur within 100 years of the 1913 Chicago Visitation. She prophesied of this coming End Time Revival....

"We are not yet up to the fullness of the Former Rain and that when the Latter Rain comes, it will far exceed anything we have seen!"

William Seymour, the leader of the Azusa Street Awakening, also prophesied that in 100 years there would be an outpouring of God's Spirit and His Shekinah Glory that would be greater and more far reaching than what was experienced at Azusa.

It has been almost 100 years since these prophecies were given... I believe that we have reached the time of the fulfillment of these 100 year old prophecies. We must be diligent to pray, intercede and protect what the Lord is doing. We must encourage and edify one another as never before. We must crucify every critical, judgmental and religious spirit that may be within us. We must put on the holiness and righteousness of Christ. Our time of divine destiny has come. We are about to experience what Brother Seymour and Sister Woodworth-Etter foresaw. God is about to rend the heavens and come down!...

Re: [revival] The 100-YEAR-OLD PROPHECY - Andrew Strom - posted by Lordoitagain (), on: 2012/3/15 13:37

Lord, do it again.
Lord, do it again.
Pour out Your Spirit upon us,
Lord, do it again.

Lord, do it again.
Lord, do it again.
Send us a mighty revival,
Lord, do it again.

Re: [revival] The 100-YEAR-OLD PROPHECY - Andrew Strom, on: 2012/3/15 14:17

Praise the Lord for His outpouring of rain. 600 million, wow, how great is the Lord and greatly to be praised. The Azusa s t awakeing also had some ties to the Welsh revival from two years before that. I cannot even begin to imagine what Chri stendom would look like today if God had not poured out His Spirit in such a mighty way. Yes Lord, glorify yourself again and may your glory cover the earth.....bro Frank

Re: - posted by Lordoitagain (), on: 2012/3/15 18:01

Every century has had its major revivals! Surely there will be one in this century! O GOD, how we need it!

http://youtu.be/nXoITWzI_EU

Re: [revival] The 100-YEAR-OLD PROPHECY - Andrew Strom - posted by Lordoitagain (), on: 2012/3/16 14:06

OH Lord prepare our hearts that we may be a part of this!