Tapes of Sermons? - posted by madmatg (), on: 2005/2/2 9:30

My brother was recently wondering if there was anyway he could purchase some tape recordings of these sermons from the website. He doesnt have a CD player in his house and porbably never will, just wondering how this could be done.

thanks
Matt

Well an interesting challengege...

For starters would direct him to this wonderful ministry;

<http://www.charityministries.org/>

And this sub-link;

<http://www.charityministries.org/tapeministry/index.cfm>

Believe it is primarily 'free' in principle, but donations are ...

This is where we here were blessed to recieve so much of Keith Daniel's messages and the great majority I believe are all available on cassette tape.

I'm not a techie, but I am assuming that he has a tape-recorder. :-) Does it have a 'line-in' socket? Could he not record t hrough that? I know it would have to be in real-time, but if its going to be on tape somewhere someone has to do the re al-time bit.

Mike, would that be right?

Ron I am assuming that he does not have access to a computer if he did not have a CD player. Mikes suggestion of getting the free tapes by donation basis from charity ministries is great, also if he wanted to purchase some tapes they are a vailable at www.rarechristianbooks.com
