prayer request and counsel on diligence and double-mindedness 4-11-12, on: 2012/4/11 5:55

Hello everyone.

This is Noah again asking for more prayers and counsel. I've gotten helpful counsel here and and back for more!

Lately I have had more power over sin, praise the Lord. But now I'm working on not being double-minded. I seek the Lord in His word, but then I leave my room to start my day and I act unbecomingly. I forget what I looked like so to speak. The Lord has said I need diligence. Does anyone have advice or encouraging words? Any comments regarding James 1, and other sections that talk about diligence or double-mindedness?

I appreciate the help.
