I just want to acknowledge my gratitude and thankfulness to Sermon Index for making available such wonderful sermons. I think I first stumbled on Sermon Index while searching for sermons by David Wilkerson and then again while searching for sermons by Keith Daniel, I am so impressed that you host sermons by these men and also by Denny Kenaston, Leonard Ravenhill, Corrie Ten Boom, Paul Washer, A.W. Tozer, Paris Reidhead, Hans R. Waldvogel, and many others. I find even though many of these are totally different in theology everything from Anabaptist to Calvinist to Pentecostal when they get serious about seeking God their messages are very similar.

Bless you for your wonderful commendation and capturing the heart of the website which is seeing and embracing truth preached from all of the body of Christ.

I also am very thankful for the strict rules and strong accountability of Sermon Index on the discussion forums. I need it, sometimes my Zeal can run away with me and leave me saying things I later regret.
