I am currently at a job that is only giving me 12-14 hours a week, and I really need closer to 25 (and have requested such in writing). I would ask that you pray that God would either:

- 1) Give me favor in the sight of my employer and give me the hours I need.
- 2) Bring me to another job
- 3) If I am to leave my current employer, I would ideally like to be on a staff position of sorts at a church (especially since I will graduate with a ministry degree in May).

I'll be praying for you. I kinda know what you're going through. I'm in the middle of a job-search myself.
