Dear Saints,

We are doing a test webcast of the system and tweaking the audio and video for the webcast, please give any feedback it should be live in the next 30 minutes or so:

www.sermonindex.net/live

the conference will be live at 7pm EST tonight.

We are looking to run the live test in about 10-15 mins.

It is 7:11 EST and the webcast is slow from my home. I have highspeed Verizon Fios and have a good connection. Any ideas on how I can get a smoother connection? It is cutting in and out. Thanks, Kenneth It's 4:25 PM Pacific (7:25 EST) and I am watching. I am having the same issue with it cutting in and out. I also lost signal a couple of times.

I will be watching and praying!

Re: , on: 2012/10/5 19:36

If this is an issue of paying for a higher bandwidth or what ever it is called (i.e., higher bitrate) to get a better connection for webcast in the future then I hope we will work together and give the money that is required.

I sent emails about the conference to a lot of Christians and non-Christian friends and the slow connection might deter them from listening. Let's believe God!

Mine is freezing every few seconds. Not going to be able to watch a whole conference like this unfortunately. Sounds like this is the same problem everyone is having.

Yes, I tried watching it on my 4G phone as well. However, I am having the same issue with the stream freezing. I will continue to try and watch while I pray.

I am using Google Chrome and it appears to be getting ALOT better, it is not cutting as much. My wife is listening on her computer with wireless and internet explorer 9 and it is getting better too. :) PRAISE God! Preach on brother Steve, preach on with the Holy Spirit!!! :)

dear saints

thank you for all your prayers. God willing we will have it fixed for tomorrow 100%

Greg,

I experienced the same as the others, yesterday, and this morning (6:00AM my time) it's actually worse. Rather than simply stopping and starting, I can't even get the feed to come back after several minutes.

Anyway, thanks for trying.

Re: , on: 2012/10/6 11:14

It appears to be worse for me today too.

Only audio on now (during Sandeep Poonen). No video. Even the audio is constantly lost.

Same here....

please put this whole conference on your site. I feel it is imperative for the Christians in this country. I praise God for the Godly courage and faithfulness of your proclaiming the Truth..even when it is a hard word. It brings forth the fruit that leads to eternal life.

Re: , on: 2012/10/6 13:22

It 1:22 EST and it is not working :(

Re: - posted by Heydave (), on: 2012/10/6 13:30

It says that it is not live when you click to watch/listen. Does anyone know if any of the previous sessions are available yet?

Thanks.

I just found that last night's message has been put on the video section, so about to watch that now. Thanks for this. Last night would have been too late for me in the UK (midnight), so probably better for me to view them after they are recorded anyway.

Re: , on: 2012/10/6 14:26

It is 2:25 PM and it is working! Listening to Mark Case...
