Hi All,
I have struggled to get across my understanding and what I wanted to say about Judgement coming to the west, Carter Conlon has not however.
Here is a link to "I know what your calling is"
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TEPz393V_b8

He has themes that shows the difference between "Judgement and Mercy" and "standing in the gap".
Carter Conlon's position on the western church is at odds with Sermonindex and I think he is correct, have a listen and see what you think,
Yours Staff

Brother with all respect. This is a thread to promote a con call for tonight. Might I encourage you to open up another thread on Carter Conlin. For sure I would invite you to come on the call tonight and listen to the praise and testimony about Atlanta. Call info at beginning of thread.

With respect.

i do think this thread is suppose to be about giving a praise report for those who attended online as well as in person the recent conference. i think bear was just trying to keep it to that topic of giving thanks and not get caught up in a debate "about" persecution. the topic of this thread is a "praise report" on the conference not "persecution" itself persay.

of course that is just my understanding and bear will probably respond himself:)

Just in case > We were so blessed!! And I was extra blessed as a wife who loves loves loves to see her husband blessed! Brian did just that for him. If I haven't heard it a 1/2dozen times from my H I haven't heard it at all how he really like that last guy preaching. (he missed most of the rest) And on & on w/ ?? > who? what? where?

I will invite him to be a part of the phone call tonight, he usually does not fellowship via phone conf. but we'll see. ;-) And I too we'll try to make it.

BUT just in case > Was very very blessed > & tweeted during conf. too! > first time EVER :-)

Sending gratitudes.....

Hi Bearmaster,

Whenever two or three are gathered in my name that God was in the midst. So no matter what the conference was about when Christians are gathered he will be there. That does not mean that the conference content was correct by his presence,

Yours Staff

Re: , on: 2012/10/15 14:09

Staff. Brother I ask you politely please do not hijack this thread into a debate. If you want to discuss the content of the conference. Then open up a thread to do so. This thread is promoting tonight's con call.

With respect
