Don't let the sickness and depravity of this world deter you from appreciating something beautiful that God made for us as a promise.

Just because it's been hijaked by homosexual groups and other questionable groups doesn't mean that we as Christians can't hold on to our symbols with pride. (pun intended)

I was hesitant at first too... until I took the time to check it out. It's not at all what you think. If you highlite in your Bible with different colors... it's the same thing.
