Dear Saints,

God has blessed us all through SermonIndex; fellowship, counsel and edification.

How about - for all who are so led of God - to hold a week's fast and prayer for SermonIndex (first week of Feb; 1-7 Feb)

How about listing prayer topics in response to this post leading up to then?

Thanks.

This is a tremendous burden and thought. Prayer is the reason why this ministry has had such impact and it will only continue as true godly prayer is continued to be offered on behalf of this work. That would be great to have a good list of prayer points, I will add a few here. And also a suggestion for some is not to do a 7 day entire fast but just fast a lunch time meal each of the 7 days and commit that time to prayer. but I am sure some will fast for the entire duration.

Prayer Points:

- Spiritual Protection over the media servers and website
- Provision of volunteers to help with security and technical aspects
- Impact of the sermons on many around the world and for the sermons to go into closed countries.
- For God to use the sermon sermons to see false converts saved and lost men commit their lives to Christ.
- For continued partnerships to see the content of SermonIndex get out to many more freely.
- For protection and blessing over Greg Gordon (founder) and his family.
- For protection and blessing over all the moderators on the website.
- For God to use the sermons to spark a local or world-wide revival amongst the Church.
- For God to draw many leaders and pastors to listen to the life-changing challenging messages on SI.
- For God to network and connect remnant saints together through the website.
- Direction for future conferences run by sermonIndex.
- Blessing and direction on Gospel Fellowships burden and book to see house churches start and equip saints to gather together in their local areas.
- For God to have a continued hedge of protection around this ministry.

I hope other saints can offer specific prayer points also.

I cannot fast for 7 days, but I will join in for at least one day + lunches....I am honored to take part...thank you for the prayer points. I believe if there is some kind of persecution, or judgment against our nation, or some kind of catastrophic event, this ministry will be key to reaching multitudes who might not otherwise be reached...God bless...

Wonderful, Mike!

Also, to add to the list of prayer points;

-That God would use SI to raise godly servants and leaders for His Kingdom

-That the godly teachings and discussions would enlighten the saints and remove spiritual blindness and deceptions.

What an honor entrusted to us this day. Prayer and fasting is key to this ministry and any birthed of the Spirit. Yes, I will be praying and fasting! Bless the work of your hands!

For everyone taking part in the prayer and fasting starting tomorrow, God grant us all courage and strength. This wasn't an initiative of mine: I was responding to a sense of God's leading.

Here's a summary of the prayer points for the prayer-fast:

- Spiritual Protection over the media servers and website
- Provision of volunteers to help with security and technical aspects
- Impact of the sermons on many around the world and for the sermons to go into closed countries.
- For God to use the sermon sermons to see false converts saved and lost men commit their lives to Christ.
- For continued partnerships to see the content of SermonIndex get out to many more freely.
- For protection and blessing over Greg Gordon (founder) and his family.
- For protection and blessing over all the moderators on the website.
- For God to use the sermons to spark a local or world-wide revival amongst the Church.
- For God to draw many leaders and pastors to listen to the life-changing challenging messages on SI.
- For God to network and connect remnant saints together through the website.
- Direction for future conferences run by sermonIndex.
- Blessing and direction on Gospel Fellowships burden and book to see house churches start and equip saints to gather together in their local areas.
- For God to have a continued hedge of protection around this ministry.
- That God would use SI to raise godly servants and leaders for His Kingdom

-That the godly teachings and discussions would enlighten the saints and remove spiritual blindness and deceptions.

...Casting all of your cares and anxieties and distracting thoughts upon Him for He cares for you (1 Peter 5:7).

Every time there is a new care, there is a new prayer to cast upon Almighty God. He is there and He cares and He welcomes the prayers of His people.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2013/1/31 9:10

It is a blessing to see some saints willing to commit to at least fasting one meal per day during (feb 1-7th).

The ministry of SermonIndex has only existed and brought fruit to God's kingdom because of intercessory prayers.

Count me in, you beautiful, blessed saints! My, what a stunning bride!!!

I love you all so very much.

Love-in-Christ,

Saints,

I am very blessed to see brothers and sisters seeking to pray and fast for these days for this work of God's kingdom.

The enemy seems to be already opposing with the server down over the night, so we can pray for protection for the servers from hackers and bandwidth abusers.

Re: - posted by mama27, on: 2013/2/1 13:58

Joining with you all.....may God abundantly bless!

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2013/2/2 21:27

Thank you for those feeling led to take part to fast and pray the entire time or just for one meal or one day to specifically pray for this ministry.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2013/2/4 8:12

Thank you to those who are continuing to feel led to fast and pray.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2013/2/7 10:36

This is the last day of the fasting and prayer time. Thank you saints for those who felt led to participate. If you wanted to still fast even just one meal today to pray for the work of SermonIndex please do so.
