God is in heaven ...and your on earth.

Let your words be few. For he has no delight in the sacrifice of fools.

Hebrews says it was a voice Not to be heard on mount sinai
(you speak directly to God ...moses) we dont want to face up.

When Samsons parents realized it was an angel amongst them they shuddered greatly (and that was an angel) Not God.

John saw the risen christ on isle of patmos ...and fell at his feet as a dead man. (That was Jesus ...Not father God)

Later he is bowing before an angel in reverence in the book of revelation.

21st century christians are so irreverent. I will stay with hallowed be his name (myself) because as paul said he is a potentate ...and jesus is also made a potentate now.

paul met jesus on the road to damascus ...but not a hint anywhere in his writings after that ... of papa and/or daddy.

Dont be deceived ...these teachings promote over familiarity with God.

abba father is (my father)

Jesus promoted no such concept. Only respect towards Hallowed be that name.

Upon realizing it was an angel.

When john baptist realized it was jesus coming to be baptized ...even he a prophet sent by God (was gob smacked and in Awe)
