The Fate of those who refuse to love... - posted by MaryJane, on: 2013/5/27 21:35

“There is no safe investment. To love at all is to be vulnerable. Love anything, and your hearts will certainly be wrung and possibly broken. If you want to make sure of keeping it intact, you must give your heart to no one, not even an animal. Wrap it carefully round with hobbies and little luxuries; avoid all entanglements; lock it up safe in the casket or coffin of your selfishness. But in that casket—safe, dark, motionless, airless—it will change. It will not be broken; it will become unbreakable, impenetrable, irredeemable. The alternative to tragedy, or at least to the risk of tragedy is damnation. The only place outside Heaven where you can be perfectly safe from all the dangers of perturbations of love is hell.” —sg (an excerpt)
