David Wilkerson Prophesied about Homosexual churches and ministers - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2013/8/24 3:26

Saints,

It is important to realize that brother Wilkerson spoke of these things when it was imaginable that it could happen on a large scale. And we are just starting to see the fruit of an ungodly gospel.

“There will be an acceptance of homosexuality, and the church will even say that it is a God-given gift.” - David Wilkerson

“Homosexual and lesbian ministers will be ordained and this will be heralded as a new breed of pioneer” - David Wilkerson

One just has to read the news headlines now to realize this is happening in the church now in many nations.

I remember when he was speaking of these things and you had a feeling it would likely come true even though the full implications of all it would mean was at that time still not apparent to you. And for a while it just sort of sat on the shelf. But now we see a bearing out of his words and we probably haven't seen anything yet as to what we are going to see.
