Hello everyone,

I am looking for some good sermons to download on video that I can have shown at my Church on Sunday nights. They 'd be shown through a data projector connected to a laptop, so the video needs to be reasonably high quality.

What are your suggestions for sermons to use?

Check out Leonard Ravenhill for some good preaching. There's plenty more around here. David Wilkerson's "What is the true church of Jesus Christ" is also excellent. www.saarnaindexi.net has more. The Temptation series comes to mind.

Hi Will,

Great idea!

Here's a few with good quality

(<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/viewcat.php?cid144>) Keith Daniel
If you scroll through there are quite a few.

(<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/viewcat.php?cid1&min180&orderbytitleA&show20>) Leonard Ravenhill

Similar here, larger file sizes naturally better quality (Recommended, "Judgement Seat Of Christ")
Actually just scrolling through these pages am finding a lot of videos I didn't even know were there.

My, if you have a large hard drive, try this

(<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/singlefile.php?lid3509>) The Cry That God Will Never Answer Carter Conlon

(<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/viewcat.php?cid279>) Richard Owen Roberts

(<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/singlefile.php?lid3109>) My House Shall Be Called A House Of Prayer (Video) 250kps Jim Cymbala

These are in Real Player but have great quality, both in clarity and content :-)

(<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/viewcat.php?cid157&min0&orderbytitleA&show20>) Zac Poonen
Would have to do some digging in there to pull one of the series together that I am aware of, it's 6 parts and have only 4, will see if I can pull it together at some point.

yes check that list that brother Mike compiled! if you put "video" in the search field you will get all the videos to show from the site also. Alot of them will be good enough quality to show full screen on a projector! post back after you have shown it to your church, it is a great idea and would definitely encourage others to pray about the possibility.

The search function doesn't work very well. I typed in 'ravenhill video' and only 2 entries came up :-)

No, just type in (video) alone and ALL the entries for videos will show up. I recommend from there to right click and open in new windows the links so you can continue to search the findings on the search results page. Let me know if that works for you.

Have you ever thought about making the videos easier to access on this site?

Oh and another thing, who is Richard Owen Roberts?

As far as the Keith Daniel videos go, for best quality I would suggest you contact the following ministry for tapes or DVD's offered for a suggested donation of $8.00. E-mail them for a listing of their video offerings.

Hi Will,

Here's a bit:

(<http://www.intl-awaken.com/biography.html>) <http://www.intl-awaken.com/biography.html>

A few articles here:

(<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/articles/index.php?viewcategory&cid107>) Richard Owen Roberts

And a snippet from another thread:

In Richard Owens Roberts section on "Seven myths of Repentance" he states, "When anyone resorts to selective repentance, the tendency is to repent of the glaring matters, the things of which everyone knows he is guilty. There is no potential for selectivity in genuine repentance. Even if someone in your church is caught in adultery and sheds buckets of tears, and makes no self-defense, and admits openly and candidly to an adulterous relationship, it is not necessarily repentance. You have to be sure that the underlying cause of adultery has been turned from, and that cause in most instances is pride. Take as an example, a woman who forsakes her three children and her husband and runs off with a local university professor. When she is confronted by the church, she at first says, "Well, if you knew that beastly fellow I'm married to, you'd understand." But the church is very earnest in bringing her to repentance and so finally she says, "Well, I admit that I did the wrong thing." Do we then rejoice? I'd want to get underneath and discover whether she had turned from the pride that made her think she didn't need to be bound to this miserable man." People often repent of the symptoms of sin but they never repent of sin itself, which is rebellion against God, and His authoritative word."

Would say he is an expert on Revivals and also just a very solid Christian. Listened to an interview of him recently and was very much taken with his character and heart even while discussing very serious issues.

I emailed tapes@maranathabc.com yesterday and haven't got a reply yet. Guess they're just busy. :-(
