Just listened to this message. I love Tozer and have many of his books. I find it sort of hard to hear though even with outside speakers, but worth the effort. I find Tozer's description of the church of his day to be remarkably like the church of modern-day America, and he died in 1963! I wonder what he would say today....

I don't often comment, Jeremy221, but the sermons you post here are most always of the deeper things of God, and I appreciate them so much....thank you!
