Taga, Hindu of India

The Taga are also referred to as Tyagi (or Tyagi Brahman), and Tyagi is a common surname. Some say they were Brahman at one time, but became farmers and lost Brahman status. They have been settled farmers for many years. The Taga have two subdivisions, Dasa and Bisa. The former allow widow remarriage while the latter prohibit it. If a Bisa allows and approves widow remarriage he at once falls into the Dasa subdivision. Ashes and bones are collected and disposed of on the third day after cremation. The gots (clans) regulate marriage alliances.

Ministry Obstacles

Spiritual darkness pervades those entrapped in Hinduism.

Outreach Ideas

Pray that Christian workers in the area won't overlook the Taga community. Pray they will no longer be a forgotten people.

Pray for the followers of Christ

There is no indication of any followers of Jesus today among the Hindu Taga. There may be a few secret believers. However, it's not too early to pray for those will come to Christ in saving faith. They will need prayer support.

Pray for the entire people group

Pray for the Taga community to increasingly become aware of their need for forgiveness of sin, and that they will seek a Savior.

Scripture Focus

"Tell of His glory among the nations, His wonderful deeds among all the peoples. For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised." 1 Chronicles 16:24-25
