The Word "deceive" in the NT - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2014/7/20 23:46

Impressive list.

How do you understand this verse?

Galatians 6:3 "If anyone thinks they are something when they are not, they deceive themselves."

ginnyrose asks:

"How do you understand this verse?"

A saying around the local Anabaptists go like this...

"God doesn't call the qualified, He qualifies the called."

When one hears God's voice, one knows that he is not able to add one thing of value to the work of God. This individual understands that he or she is only a vessel prepared for a good work. So those who think they are something, have not as yet, been given this understanding.

Paul wrote:

1Co 2:4

And my speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

1Co 2:5

The power of God does not reside in the individual, therefore the individual has nothing of value.

Yes, this is a favorite of Bros. Walter Beachy and Paul Emerson.... :-)

Personally, I love testimonies that demonstrate the miraculous work of God. The Scriptures are full of them. I love to visualize myself being an observer of these events, understand the dynamics among the people at this point in time.

The fact we see little of it today does not bother me because I know God is in control. Affliction can come because of poor choices, or God may send it to chastise one, in either case one's comfort is disturbed. This is not bad if it forces us to look to the LORD for insight into our situation.

Since this is the case, I know I am vulnerable to stories of the miraculous and how these miracles can and will lend credibility to the miracle-worker. But I have to keep reminding myself how the WORD warns us of these miracle workers and their power to deceive. SO. So, I better stick with the WORD and revel in those stories because I know they are true and they will not mislead. They demonstrate the power of God, his authority over nature, over political powers, whatever that works to get us all bent out of shape. If God does miracles I am glad, I will rejoice. What I consider the most important is that my name is written in the Lamb's book of life. Now, THAT is a miracle!
