The Rev. Hyeon Soo Lim, pastor of the 3,000-member Light Korean Presbyterian Church in Toronto, has been missing for over a month after he failed to return home following a trip to North Korea.

" left Toronto on Jan. 27 for Seoul, then flew to China and crossed over the northern border of North Korea into the Rajin region," explained Pak.

" traveled to the Rajin region to continue support for the on-going ministry of orphanages, nursery and nursing homes."

Pak also told CP that Lim had been to North Korea over a hundred times in the past "on similar trips," saying he's "an experienced traveler" who "knows the language and how to navigate the politics and culture wisely." ...
