The state of the church in the UK, on: 2015/11/13 17:59

This is an excellent teaching on the state of the church in Britain. I would say that although it looks very different on the outside, the American church is in the exact same state. In fact, many of the points this man raises points to the general state of the church in the West. Greg, I think this will greatly bless you and falls within the teachings found in SI.....bro Frank

It never used to be difficult to hear someone speaking like this on a Sunday. I think we took it for granted.

I agree David, we are in the midst of a famine. It has been a creeping spiritual famine. The kind of famine where people really dont realize that they are slowly starving to death. I absolutely believe it is the great falling away. Now most people would not be able to stand sound teaching, they are so far removed from it that it would be foreign to their ears.....bro Frank Exacty! Sound teaching is foreign to them because they think they are observing sound teaching. This is the strong delusion Paul speaks of.

Here is an interview with Jim Graham (41 min), it's not the whole sermon though.

Thank you Lisa. I think the original clip is a few years old. Jim Graham sounds much older here. I noticed too that the sermons on the related site show Jim at very different ages.

One comment he made was that he is very excited for the future of the church in the UK, much more than at any other time. Perhaps, the Lord has revealed His purpose for the coming days. Praise God.

Thank you Frank and thank you Lisa for making available.
