PAIN and the Christain Response - posted by dohzman (), on: 2015/12/4 15:46

In light of the recent Cal. attack many in the US start pointing fingers at God so I wanted to post a few books that deal with suffering, some of this list I have and have read some I have not, I received it from Assist News Service and felt it would be a useful post and if anyone wants to add resource links or audio links that deal with pain and suffering...it could be a useful resource.

If God, Why Evil, Norman Geisler

* The Problem of Pain, C.S Lewis

* Let us Reason, A.E Wilder-Smith

* Why Suffering, Ravi Zacharias

* The End of Christianity, William Dembski

* Hard Questions, Real Answers, William Lane Craig

* War and Peace, Vernard Eller

* Evil and the Justice of God, N.T Wright

This I believe will become an important resource and aid in the defense of the Gospel and like the Psalmist would say,, a wellspring of life. God Bless Bro.DMiller
