I often look back at past threads, recently I have noticed multiple post missing in various threads, what is going on ?

Here is one example : https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id=49368&forum=35 the George Whitfield, J.C. Ryle, Arthur W. Pink , Ray Comfort : comments have vanished that I posted, I did not delete them.

I have recently noticed other threads in which others post by other posters as well as my own have vanished, just curious of what is going on ?

Here is another thread that I recently referred back to https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id=48980&forum=36

At first I thought, did other posters go back and delete their own post afterwards, and then I noticed that some of mine had vanished, and I am rather sure that I did not remove my own post.

Brother,

I notice that "murrcoir" edited and deleted what he wrote. We still allow saints to edit posts though for many reasons this might change.

Are there specific pages where your posts are blank where you are sure you did not edit them?

Re: - posted by proudpapa, on: 2015/12/14 17:57

take this page for instance I have one missing, pilgrim had 2 missing murrcoir had at least 1 missing , the missing posts are sporadic.

As I go through all of the pages you will see posts missing sporadically from multiple posters.

this page I have 2 missing pilgrim has 1 missing murrcoir

I generally post reason for deleting my post such as "convicted" "delete" etc. I do not recall just removing posts without giving some description of reason

I thought I was the only one who noticed that...just thought I must have been forgetful - and that can happen!

RE: ///...just thought I must have been forgetful - and that can happen! ///

I agree but I had no reason to remove :

the George Whitfield, J.C. Ryle, Arthur W. Pink , Ray Comfort : comments, and than to leave there names in the heading, Would make no since.

I recall in my memory that thread often as I hear or read other preachers views on the subjects and consider adding too it.
