My housemates need Jesus and so do my former ones, One of them was gay and my recent housemate is on drugs. It is so potent that I can smell it when I come up the stairs. I have left tracts, he also treats his girlfriend badly and I am stuck what to do. My housemate prays to Mary and I have got he has got himself to read his bible. My former housemates are a fountain full of problems they had extreme sexual problems, the thing I want prayer for is that they will turn to Jesus. I have had also had problems with my exams and my coursework, the amount of stuff that I went through that term I could write a book.

I need Jesus and to obey him
