

Miracles that follow the plow :: prayer for my brother and family

prayer for my brother and family, on: 2016/3/13 4:31

My brother Brad was recently bailed out of jail for drugs and he has been home for a few weeks and has been doing better, but tonight i noticed he has been acting different again. Their is a huge spiritual battle going on with him and for my family and my wife's. Nobody is born again in our families that I know of, but can you come alongside me as I pray for my brother and the rest of those in my family and my wifes and their salvation and their deliverance from the devil. I deeply appreciate it.
