Huh?

I didn't quite understand the question, brother.

Who is Keith Daniel?

:-)

Edit:

Okay...I did a Google search and found a couple of mp3's from this preacher. I look forward to hearing them! Unfortunately, I haven't found any schedules yet. I'll keep trying though!

Edit 2:

Wow -- there are a BUNCH of Keith Daniel messages in this website! Excellent!

Edit 3:

Well, I found the following webpage:

<http://www.webservant.us/forum/viewtopic.php?t=217&sid=99ba3f64fedba2a73a3ba6da45fb4a93>

...and it had the following post:

Greg. Are you still looking for info on Keith Daniel? (I saw your web site forum.)
I believe he worked for a while with the Africa Evangelistic Band, a holiness movement in South Africa.

I have no e-mail for them But if you mail this man - Dr. Colin Peckham -he may be able to give you contact details. he is a former AEB man

Mail him at ... colin@revivals.org

I'm not too certain, but I believe this is from SermonIndex's own beloved administrator, Greg. Anyway, I hope that this helps.

:-)

Freed,

This is welcoming news and just wondering out loud here, but perhaps it may be beneficial if someone who makes contact with this gentleman might reproduce Keith's schedule back here, am just slightly concerned for this pastors email inbox...

Chris,

If you note the dates from that link, this is from around this time last year. Here is an old link from the developments at th at time, a few SI saints were blessed to be able to attend and their responses:

(https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?mode=viewtopic&topic_id3133&forum12&start30&viewmode=flat&order1) EVENT: Keith Daniel speaking schedule 2004 *(USA)

Another opportunity to suggest the mining of the site via the search engine. I know no one believes me, but there really is a lot of good stuff here. :-P

If you haven't availed yourself of this man of God it would only be to your own poverty. This man has a heart and a love and an expression that is quite unlike you may have ever heard. His messages sat here at one point almost completely undiscovered until one day a saint brought him to everyones attention and as it has been said, the rest is history.

Hi freecd,

Thanks for the post. That is about 180 or so miles from here where I live. I would love to go down and am making plans to do so.

God Bless,

-Robert

Is there any more information on this?

How do I get there?

What time does it start, how many days is it?

Do we have to sign up or just show up?

Is there a limit to how many people can come?

I have a group of about 10 people that want to come up for this from Dallas, and I wanting to know all the details so I can book hotel information and things like that.

The begining of the tour is around this time. But it is not at La Russell, Missouri. It is somewhere near there and I already forget the name of the place.

His newsletter is supposed to be in the homes of the subscribers by the end of this month. Mr. Corville told me to call him by the end of this month if I have not received it yet.

So I will let everybody know any further details that come my way.

Last year a couple friends and I drove to Oregon to hear Keith preach. It was a 1600 mile trip, 800 miles one way. I thoroughly enjoyed it and was blessed by God. When I talked with Don Corville he told me that Keith was not going to Oregon this year. The closest states he will be at is Montana and Colorado. It is in my heart to go and see Keith Daniel again God willing. It may take flying there. Wow I have never been on a plane before.

I know Greg just got back from a trip to Texas driving but maybe he would go on another one in a couple of months from now?

If Keith Daniel is even coming to your state or one close by, I would recommend going and seeing him. You will never forget the experience! Imagine if you had the chance to see Leonard Ravenhill preach 20 years ago and you passed it up.
