URGENT message from Time Square Church this morning, July 16, 2017, on: 2017/7/16 13:34

Oh dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, there is so much joy flooding my being through a heart of repentance, love, mercy, and grace. I have no idea who the speaker of Time Square Church was this morning (Sunday July 16, 2017) at 10:00 am Eastern Standard Time, but my husband and I watched the service live online. I believe the message was called , "From Abraham to Antioch".

This message was not by the man who gave it, it came directly from the Spirit of God. My husband and I have been so broken, even losing hope. The Lord is doing a healing that only He alone can do. The Holy Spirit came upon my husband and I in our living room this morning as we wept aloud together, holding one another.....true forgiveness, repentance, and love broke forth...not only between each other, but also for every person in our life we have ever felt offended by....even in the smallest way.

I cannot tell you how urgent this message is, all I know is that it is truly a timely message for the body of Christ. Please, when it comes out on youtube, watch it. Im not putting man on a platform by any means....as I said, I have no idea who the speaker was, but the message was the most convicting Ive heard to date in our generation. Did anyone else hear it?

May Jesus be glorified in everything we do and say....God forgive us for our divisions over petty things. Forgive us for not loving others the way You love us, for arguing in senseless things, for our pride that we are blind to. Break down every wall, every barrier we have made with one another because of denominational differences, or any other silly thing that divides. Perfect Your love in our hearts that we would genuinely LOVE one another the way You LOVE us. in Jesus precious, most Holy name, Amen.

And brothers and sisters, please forgive me if I have offended any of you unknowingly. Please forgive me for sharing anything that has revealed the sins of others. Forgive me for every fault that I have done. Ive never been so broken, and never have I experienced the power of God as I did in my living room this morning. All praise, glory, and honor be unto Jesus our Lord and Savior.

Edited to give date

With much love in Jesus,
s

Dear brother, the message you shared is very good, but it is not the one we heard this morning. The one we heard was "live" from today, July 16, 2017. It hasn't been posted yet. I wish we could find it, but will have to wait a few days. Its called,

"From Abraham to Antioch"

God bless you, and thank you for helping.

Edited to give date.

I believe it was Pastor Claude Houde from Canada. I, too, was very convicted and blessed by the message!

I attend tsc and serve in the music ministry. I agree this message today was powerful and timely. It spoke to me and my wife powerfully.

You can view the message on the live stream playback for the next week here:

<http://www.tscnyc.org/webcasts/sunday-10am-nyc/>

After that you can find it on the normal sermon download page.

And yes it was Claude Houde from Montreal.

That was a good message for the vast majority of the body of Christ.

Hello madam, this sharing you have made here is a blessing that promises to make an eternal difference in my life. I was at the office listening but had to stop because of the urge to pray. That part that reveals the inability to transmit faith due to inner baggage and the other that spoke about eyes being opened have answered a question that has been in my heart. (namely why I do so much but fail to make the expected impact in God's service etc) Thanks a lot and God bless.
