Christianity Is Not the Only Way to Heaven, Prominent Presbyterian Pastor Says - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2017/1

Leader of the second largest congregation in the Presbyterian Church (USA), Rev. Shannon Johnson Kershner has declared that Christianity is not the only way to heaven.

Kershner, 45, who leads the 5,500-member Fourth Presbyterian Church in Chicago, Illinois, expressed her belief in a podcast with the Chicago Sun-Times after she was asked the question "Is Christianity the only way to heaven?"

"No," Kershner replied bluntly.

"God's not a Christian. I mean, we are ... For me, the Christian tradition is the way to understand God and my relationship with the world and other humans and it's for the way for me to move into that relationship but I'm not about to say what God can and cannot do in other ways and with other spiritual experiences," she explained.

Children, it is the last hour; and just as you heard that antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have appeared; from this we know that it is the last hour. 1 John 2:18

This is the result of post modern relativism marrying up with its own child, Emergentism. She is lost, you can't expect her to believe the Bible.

Feminism's roots go deep!

The fruit is visible but the root is hidden. So it is with much of what we see before our very eyes. Feminism is at the root. Do you see the fruit? Eve saw it. She loved it, partook of it, and gave some to her husband.

Now, there are many a tree in the garden where Satan has been slithering in the midst. And they all have their root in feminism. Here are some names of those trees which have sprung up from that diabolical root feminism.

Abortion, rebellion, divorce, adultery, fornication, pornography, humanism, and so much more.

Feminism is at the root of unbelief. Not believing the Word of God. Feminism is at the root of women having authority roles such as a pastor, a president, a CEO, etc...etc.

And what is worse is that as Jeremiah wrote so long ago in chapter 5,

"...my people love to have it so." "And what will ye do in the end thereof."

As proof that this is so, just watch and see the response to what's written here in my post regarding feminism. Read this to most church-goers in America that you know or don't know.

Let the slithering now begin!

Savannah its not just women such as this female pastor who believes there are other ways to get to heaven other than Jesus. Male pastors also deny that Jesus is the only way to heaven.

Are you serious Blaine!

There really are male pastors who deny that Jesus is the only way to heaven!

Thanks for the enlightenment!

Would there also be others besides presbyterians who deny Jesus is the only way to heaven!

Now, how might this all have connections to feminism?

Hmmmmm...

Re: , on: 2017/10/12 22:34

Savannah your sarcasm is duly noted. The fact is there are many in the pulpit who are denying that Christ is the only way of salvation. It is simply the apostasy that the American church is living in.

The woman in question is a liberal Presbyterian. She comes from a liberal Presbyterian denomination. The fact is a male pastor in that same denomination could have made the same statement. So whether it was a man or a woman, the gender is irrelevant. The fact is that denomination is saturated with liberal theology that denies the person and work of Jesus Christ.

But men such as Bob Schuler and Joel Olsteen say Christ is not the only way to Salvation. Even Pope Francis believes all faiths lead to God.

The issue is not feminism but liberal theology that rejects the person and work of Jesus Christ.

"Christianity Is Not the Only Way to Heaven"

Jesus Christ is the only way to Heaven... Whatever people convinced themselves of another way, is surely is a way to the Lake of Fire...

Tiddlywinks?

You waited two years to reply to Blaine. He's not here anymore.
