Brother Greg,

I'm thinking this may have already been stated and I missed it, but can you reiterate your purpose for having the recent SI conference? I feel impressed to pray for those who attended the conference and the work that God is doing as everyone returns to their everyday lives. I would like to be specific in prayer and wonder if you can give us some burdens that may have come up as you met with and fellowshiped with those who attended. Something more specific than just praying for revival...

Sister,

Thank you for your interest to pray. God blessed the conference, though very few attended from abroad and mostly locally but those 30-50 who came from abroad were very hungry for the Lord and the Words of God. One brother even came from London, England.

The conference was on Revival. Of course that means personal revival but also the overarching theme was asking God for corporate revival. There was a definite sense of God's presence during worship times.

A big call in the event was towards our first love for Jesus. Also Shane Idleman locally has been contending for revival for many years and this event has been a tipping point for some in his congregation to surrender more fully to God.

Pray for Westside Christian Fellowship to have an outpouring of God's Spirit.

Pray for all who attended that they will surrender fully to First love for Jesus.

Pray for all speakers that God would bless them for their sacrifice to fly in freely to minister.

Thank you, Brother Greg. That helps.

Thank you sister for creating this thread. My family along with a few other brothers and sisters were able to attend a simulcast of the conference near Austin, Tx. We were all very encouraged and truly felt the Lord was indeed speaking to those who have an ear to hear through the brothers sharing.

After a conference like this, the key question is, how do we respond? The Holy Spirit speaking through the brothers and the testimony of Scripture is that God's people should pray for the fulfillment of the very things that God has spoken.

I along with my wife would like to join you and also reach out to any of the other saints that were impacted through the speaking to see if there might be a way to find an agreed upon time to beseech the Lord to usher in revival that will consummate with his return. I think there is a deep longing in many of God's people not just for another revival BUT the final revival. Perhaps this might be a revival which culminates in a proclamation from heaven saying, "The Bride has made herself ready."

I'm thinking of something along the lines of a teleconference at an agreed upon time. Wide open to fellowship and suggestions.

Brother Abey,

I am so glad you were able to attend the conference and were blessed! I am continuing in prayer but don't know that I would be able to commit to a time for a teleconference. I believe there was a prayer call for SI on Monday nights. I don't know if it is still going. My heart is burdened to pray and I will join you and others. The times are truly dire....
