Featured Audio Sermon: Dangerously Comfortable Christianity by Alan Baker - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2019/11/21 8:00

Saints,

Alan Baker gives a passionate plea with North America believers to wake up and do the works of God in our generation and time. He shares from the key verse: "I must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no one can work." Do we have tears for the Lost? Do we have intimacy with the Lord? Do we need personal Revival? Are we ready for persecution?

A quote from the message;

“Our hearts have become hard because of the deceitfulness of sin. Tears! When last have you wept? When last were you moved to the place of tears for the lost? What is the state of your heart? Is it soft? The heart of God is broken.”

AMEN!!! AMEN!!! AMEN!!!

Shout this from the rooftops and whisper it in the alleyways and confess it on our knees!

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.
7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.
8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

So simple and yet so powerful. God only trusts men who are under his authority with His authority to speak for Him. Obedience to the Lord's command is key!

Brother Greg,
I am interested in hearing this by this man, soon.

Taken from what you wrote:

“Alan Baker gives a passionate plea with North America believers to wake up and do the works of God in our generation and time. He shares from the key verse: "I must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no one can work.”

This verse has been resonating in my Spirit for a while now .

* "I must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no one can work."œ

Then this morning on one of Bro Gbile Akanni â€™s messages,..

And now this by this Bro that you have offered us.

lâ€™m eager to hear.

Thank you,
