Lazarus,

Thank you for putting this list up. Now that he's with His God, it's bittersweet to look at.

Back in the 70's, that's all we had was L.Ravenhill, D. Wilkerson and Keith Greene and the The Classics. How blessed we were to have these men there, before the 'other stuff' infiltrated the Church.

These great men, got us on a good foundation to start off with ... and the Classics built on that.

I'm so grieved inside for those who are just now saved today, because they don't know 'what' books to buy at the Christian Book Stores and may not have sound Churches in their area.

I think we need to pray for the "lambs" more now than anything. And I pray that others will feel to pray this way also.

When Jesus said to Peter, in John 21:15-17, Lovest thou Me ? Jesus' First response was "feed my 'Lambs'." Then later he responded with 'sheep'.

He seemed to always put the young and young in Him first. (Like the millstone verses, and forbid not the children, etc. etc.)

The last will be first, and the first last... and verses like that.

I pray we can direct as many as possible to these great Authors, before the wolves get them.

Thanks.

Great list brother Jesse, I hope some people benefit from it.

Hi.

I tried to listen to Ravenhill's own recommendations in an audio sermon, but it was of super-low quality, as is my hearing. I couldn't decipher it.

Did anyone hear and understand and write down the books that he recommended? If so, can you post them here?

Thanks

Hi GodsPeace,

There is a listing or two derived from that message, trouble locating it at the moment but, I do believe this is likely to contain the bulk of it and might I add, what a great job and task this is here;
(https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id8649&forum35#65630) Ravenhills Book List reviews

It pasted through here seemingly without notice.
