By way of Chistianaudio.com recieved an email marking a sharing of sorts with the following

(<http://www.conversationsjournal.com/issueindex.html>) <http://www.conversationsjournal.com/issueindex.html>

Began reading some of the first 'issue' (<http://www.conversationsjournal.com/issue1.pdf>) <http://www.conversationsjournal.com/issue1.pdf> last night and was impressed with the direction and the similarities to our own ... whatever you want to call it that we do here in this forum. Was struck instantly by the forthcoming and blunt assesment from Larry Crabb as well as the dismantling of my own preconcieved discomfort with that dirty word, 'psychology' :-). At least through the first couple of articles.

Very interesting and thought I would share it here with all of you.
