The Redeemer is Returning to Zion - posted by Jason, on: 2003/6/23 16:17

I highly recommend that everyone listen to "The Redeemer is Returning to Zion." It is one of Wilkerson's greatest sermons ever, in my opinion.

A statement to be pondered and thoroughly prayed about:

God is more interested in winning all of me, than me winning all of the world.

I could not but follow Jason's advise and listened to Wilkerson this afternoon, Swedish time. I have read and listened to his message several times before.

This time I brought forth a copy to read and listened to David's intensity and forcefulness while having the text before my eyes. The impression was immense. This type of digging in into a word from the Lord is highly recommended.

Go to Wilkerson's web site to find yourself a copy. If you find it difficult, write me a note on the private message board at this site and I will arrange to send you a copy via e-mail.

I think this is an awesome idea brother. If there is a written version of the sermon it would be an great idea to read along with the transcript as the man of God preaches. I believe we should be soaking ourselves in prayer and even using this technique to really allow the Holy Spirit of God to impress some of these great truths to our hearts.

I am going to try this tonight with this message and I will add a link to the text where the sermon download is.

You will get as much of God as your desire. seek him with all your strength, mind, soul, everything you are... he deserves nothing less.
